Are you saying the man is...

the sergeant?

Do you think he'd risk coming here at this hour ?

Not sure ... but still ...

No answer.

Who?

Hye-Ri.

I need to go.

You shouldn't go out there right now !

She could be in danger !

Security teams are out there.

If you get caught by them, it won't do you any good.

And what if it isn't the sergeant but someone else with a weapon ?

Wh... what?

I know you don't find me very dependable.

What are you talking about ??

But I work out and have completed self-defense classes.

I won't get caught.

So, just trust me and wait for me in here !

I get that you are stronger than me. It hurts.

Can you let my arm go ?

I, I am sorry ! I wasn't thinking straight !

Anyway... I am going to check her room out.

Lock the door and stay in here!

What was that ...

Is it really the sergeant?

What if it's really him?

What am I going to do then ?

Let's just get there and see what happens!
